Dear Work Learn Supervisor & Administrator,

Thank you for your proposal for funding through the UBC Vancouver Work Learn Program. We received 1,236 proposals requesting funding for the Winter 2022 cycle ($1.12M more than received in Winter 2021), with 41% of proposals being research-oriented.

We are pleased to inform you that your proposal was successful – congratulations! The funding details for your proposed position(s) can be found in the chart below.

In some cases, Work Learn is unable to fund 100% of all openings associated with one proposal. If there is a discrepancy in openings you requested vs funded, this means your proposal is partially funded. Please refer to the chart below for funds granted.

We have created a guide to ensure that all UBC supervisors and administrators are aware of, and adhere to all of the criteria for receiving wage subsidy through this program. Ensure you review the document Work Learn Winter 2022 Terms and Conditions for a comprehensive guideline for accepting the Work Learn subsidy for your position(s).

Your Funding Details: Your proposal indicates you have an internal candidate(s), so it will not be posted on CareersOnline.

A few additional reminders:

- Equitable Hiring Practices and Inclusive workplaces. The Equitable Hiring Guide is designed to help supervisors facilitate equitable selection processes to help recruit and select diverse student talent.
 - Note: Interviews should only be conducted after your Work Learn position has closed on CareersOnline. If you wish to interview on a rolling basis, please email work.learn@ubc.ca to state this clearly on your posting.
- Remote Work. Work Learn students are considered a UBC employee, thus to assess if their position is conducive to remote work please refer to UBC Human Remote Work Guidelines. If you have any questions, please contact your HR Department or Administrator.
- Paid Sick Leave. Effective January 1, 2022, the British Columbia Employment Standards Act, has implemented five (5) days of mandatory paid sick leave for all workers in BC. Student employees will see their balance reflected on Workday. Refer to UBC HR Legislative Sick Leave for details.
- Supervisors are critical to student employee's success in their Work Learn position. The Work Learn Supervisor Resource package has been designed to support you in the supervision of your student employee – connecting you to valuable resources and information, please make sure you take the time to review this document as you prepare to welcome your student employee(s).
- Site Visits. All projects are subject to participating in a site visit. If selected for a site visit, supervisors are responsible for ensuring all individuals directly responsible for the supervision of the student employee, as well as the student employee are in attendance.
- End-of-Session survey. Supervisors and their student employees must complete the WL End-of-Session Survey. Supervisors are expected to complete the survey by April 30, and ensure completion by their student employee(s). The feedback from the surveys is used to expand resources and program improvements.
