Dear Dr. Elizabeth Wolkovich,

I am writing to let you know of an opportunity you may be interested in this summer as a current Work Learn supervisor.

The Work Learn International Undergraduate Research Awards is designed to provide international students with exceptional workplace learning experiences in undergraduate research, subsidizing faculty supervisors to hire these students to work on a specific research project.

These are full-time opportunities (35 hours per week), for a minimum of 16 consecutive weeks during the summer term (May – August). This program provides a $4500 subsidy per student which is reimbursed to the faculty supervisor at the end of the opportunity. Supervisors are required to supplement this $4500 using other sources to meet BC's minimum wage requirements.

Please note that students cannot hold a Work Learn position and a Work Learn International Undergraduate Research Awards in the same term. As Work Learn supervisors, you have the option of adjusting your part-time Work Learn position to a full-time Work Learn International Undergraduate Research Award experience. For Summer 2019 term, these opportunities would run from May 13 – August 30, 2019.

If you have an international student in mind or already work with a student in a research capacity, this would be an excellent opportunity to advance the research and the student's growth and development.

If you are interested, email Sandra Wan (Program Coordinator, Workplace Learning) at sandra.wan@ubc.ca by Wednesday, May 1, 2019. Confirmation of award allocations will be sent out by Monday, May 6, 2019.

Sincerely,
Sandra
